

48TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

For your highest priority issue, why is it your highest and how would you address it?

For your lowest priority issue, why is it your lowest and how would you address it?

Stephen Houlahan

Women’s reproductive choices and the moral beliefs that inform them are theirs to make and theirs alone. Allowing individual state governments to legislate women’s reproductive choices and religious beliefs is an assault on women’s freedom to make personal decisions about their own bodies.

There is a constant issue with crossing the border for commerce and tourist access. A reservation system involving use of a smart phone should be implemented, so tourists can plan to cross the border when traffic is least problematic and allow their entry quickly.

Rep. Darrell Issa

Did not provide response.

Did not provide response.