For your highest priority issue, why is it your highest and how would you address it?

Brian Maienschein (D)

With a state as large as California, it is wrong to say that we only have the capacity to focus on a few issues. The diverse population of our state demands that we give equal attention to a wide range of issues. Different issues impact people differently and what may be less important to one person may be a matter of life or death for another.

Kristie Bruce-Lane (R)

I will work to address the skyrocketing costs of living/affordability challenges our families face. I will not ignore you & your family's most basic needs for survival in this state. As a policy leader with experience on homelessness, I will provide real solutions. I am a victims advocate-not an advocate for criminals. I will be tough on crime.

All of the issues are a priority.
