A. Bona lives in the District I was elected to represent. I first became aware of the individual when others told me about his commentary that obsessively included me in comments online (Nextdoor) in 2019.

SHORT TITLE:

CASE NUMBER:

ATTACHMENT (Number): 7a(3) - Describe Harassment*(This Attachment may be used with any Judicial Council form.)*

Around the end of July and into August, obsessive conduct by Anthony Bona (AKA "Regular Guy In Carlsbad" and "Antonio Bona" and "Tony Bona" and "Tee 'Bone' Keto") increased in intensity, leading to statements that 1) he had intentions to force me to leave my home and 2) that he intended to surveil me and post such surveillance online. Bona had already been removed from a social media site (Nextdoor) due to an ongoing pattern of "veiled threats" associated with me, while also sending emails to city employees attempting to gain access to my personal phone number and threatening to sue my place of work and me for my not responding to him online.

The recent shift in A. Bona's intensity not only coincided with his being banned from Nextdoor, but also coincided with linking up with two individuals on Facebook - Lawrence "Larry" Posner and Noel K. Breen. Together, their collective behavior has become increasingly concerning within the time period noted (July-Sept).

The most recent threats by A. Bona, threatening to force me to leave my home and stalking, after over a year of consistent, increasingly obsessive and distressing activity directed at me and those who publicly associate with me (who fear retaliation), exceed Constitutionally protected activity and illustrate a credible threat.

("In California, speech that constitutes 'harassment' within the meaning of section 527.6 is not constitutionally protected, and the victim of the harassment may obtain injunctive relief." "The right to free speech 'does not include the right to repeatedly invade another person's constitutional rights of privacy and the pursuit of happiness through the use of acts and threats that evidence a pattern of harassment designed to inflict substantial emotional distress.") 1

· August 30 ·

Remember the game "Where's Waldo?" I loved that game. As a kid it was fun entertainment. Now-a-days with high tech surveillance (and neighbors who hate your ass), it's an easier game to play. Over the next couple months we will play a game of "Where's Cori?"

Removed from Nextdoor for threats

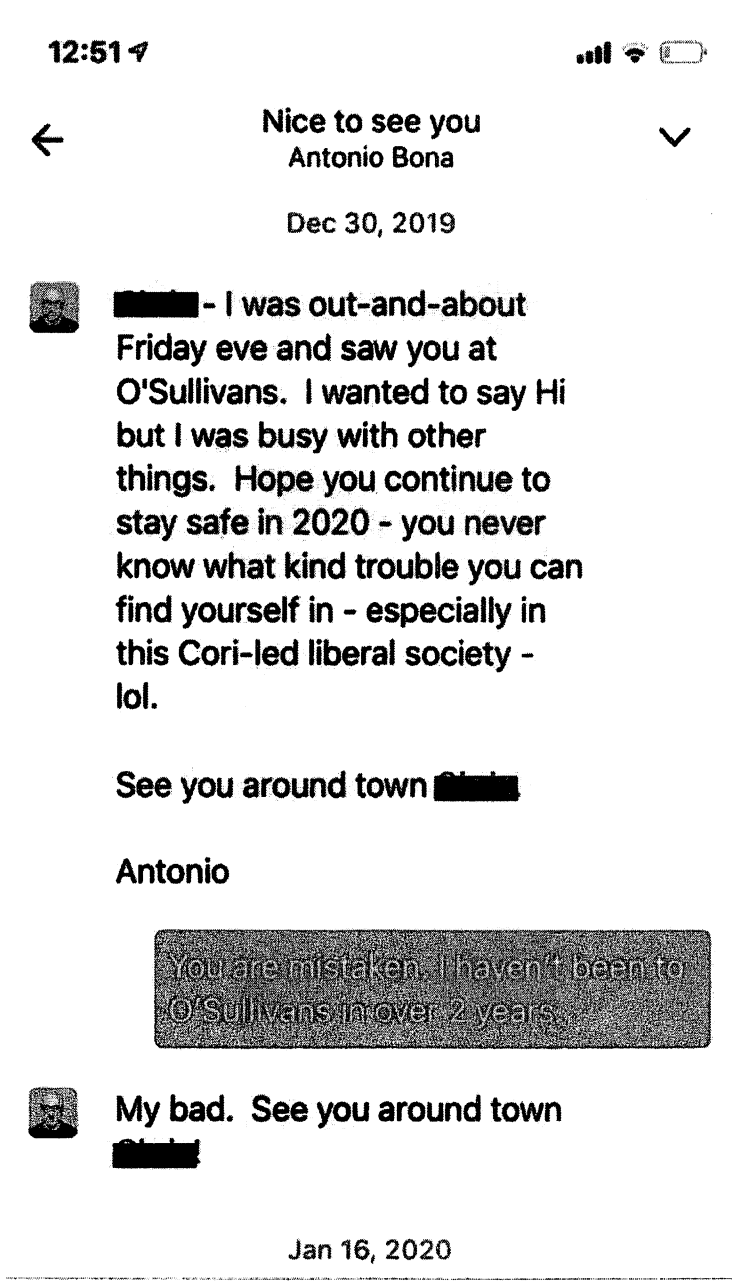

Regular Guy in Carlsbad · 7/20/20

The #CancelCulture is alive and well on Nextdoor Carlsbad, CA I say - Hold a female councilmember accountable and I am kicked of Nextdoor for threatening a woman. Really?

Nextdoor (https://nextdoor.com/news\_feed/?post=146753858&comment=385019594;

Olde Carlsbad

- Thank you Thomas. I really wanted to respond as soon as I read the "heads up" messages giving me the notification about this. [REDACTED] didn't message me, in case you were wondering... he showed support without asking for accolades.... so I held back. I was taken aback from the kindness and respect I received from so many people.

To see a neighbor put themselves out there for me... dang... I have been speechless ever since. I was also thankful for [REDACTED] acknowledging and [REDACTED] who confirmed I was male. What a win.

Really though... what eloquent support for not only me, but for the respect for humans in general. His response showed this rarely seen acknowledgment that had nothing to do with personal beliefs and only focused on respect and acknowledging others and their lives.

I didn't see the he/she comment until I read the comments in support.

I can't think of a response that would have been more effective than what [REDACTED] wrote. Respect and acknowledgment for the lives and choices of others with the spotlight on how his personal beliefs had nothing to do with his acknowledgment and respect for human life.

And because this all happened, I am obliged to share what really got Antonio kicked off of Nextdoor. And just to acknowledge, I never have made a personal jab at a spin on his name. Nor did I ever communicate with him prior to receiving this message. I hadn't been to O'Sullivan's in over a year when I received this message.

I had only commented in support of council member Cori Schumacher on Nextdoor prior to receiving this message containing a "veiled threat".

His removal from the site had nothing to do with what he claimed, and was due to an event that he must have forgotten about or hid.

Antonio knows my gender. Antonio paints himself as a victim. And Antonio is clearly desperate to paint himself in a way that contradicts his cry for support. It all tests on anger and hate... to save his standing.

To the compassionate neighbors who have been so supportive, I thank you. I cannot explain what the honesty and willingness to share with me, means to me. I would never want those one of a kind individuals to find themselves on the receiving end of such malicious and deranged targeting.

I'm not posting this to change anyone's mind... I'm posting this so that you can make an informed decision. And I completely understand why you wouldn't react to this post, out of fear of retaliation. I wouldn't expect any less from the individual.

So, here it is.

Cori - QUESTION - How do you know definitively that tourists are NOT following our guidelines? All the tourists I interview say to the contrary. I do see people without masks but I wouldn't jump to a conclusion they were tourists. Please Cori - tell... See More

Tammy - I am asking if Cori Schumacher has a city of Carlsbad issued mobile phone and what that number is.

If she does not have a city issued phone, but she is reimbursed for her personal phone, I would like to know that number.

The reason for this request is that I want to make a PRR for some text messages but I need these questions answered first so I can request using the correct phone number.

ZERSETZUNG

"The Stasi often used a method that was really diabolic. It was called Zersetzung. The goal was to destroy secretly the self-confidence of people, for example by damaging their reputation, by organizing failures in their work, and by destroying their personal relationships. Considering this, East Germany was a very modern dictatorship. The Stasi didn't try to arrest every dissident. It preferred to paralyze them, and it could do so because it had access to so much personal information and to so many institutions."

—Hubertus Knabe, German historian

I have been cleaning up all the content I've spread over 3 blogs and varied platforms over the past decade. It's been enlightening and entertaining and concerning, to see how much the dialogue has coarsened over the past ten years. It's been interesting to look back at my work, but I have to confess that I'm so damned sad about looking at all the blood that gets spilled on social media, particularly as we live through COVID-19, economic dislocations, and a bitter election.

I've spent a lot of time writing about my experiences living in Carlsbad. It's been horrible to see a once harmonious tightly-knit community torn to shreds by a demagogue and the viciousness of her online surrogates. I confess never really understanding how the Kremlin's troll farms could tear our nation apart, or how the Stasi worked. But I've lived with a case study for nearly a decade by now. It's awful to have been a witness. And then the term hit me. Carlsbad has fallen victim to the same techniques of psychological harassment of perceived enemies the East Germans used known as Zersetzung. It literally means "decomposition".

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Orders System (CARPOS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 4. The order ends on the expiration date in item ④ on page 1.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Pen. Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6. Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS.

Notice/Proof of Service

The law enforcement agency must first determine if the restrained person had notice of the order. Consider the restrained person "served" (given notice) if (Pen. Code, § 836(c)(2)):

- The officer sees a copy of the Proof of Service or confirms that the Proof of Service is on file; or
- The restrained person was informed of the order by an officer.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the restrained person cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The order can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

This is a Court Order.

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities (see Pen. Code, § 136.2; Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001) and is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

(Clerk will fill out this part.)

—Clerk's Certificate—

Clerk's Certificate
[seal]

I certify that this Temporary Restraining Order is a true and correct copy of the original on file in the court.

NOTICE

- Plaintiff must file this cover sheet with the first paper filed in the action or proceeding (except small claims cases or cases filed under the Probate Code, Family Code, or Welfare and Institutions Code). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.220.) Failure to file may result in sanctions.
- File this cover sheet in addition to any cover sheet required by local court rule.
- If this case is complex under rule 3.400 et seq. of the California Rules of Court, you must serve a copy of this cover sheet on all other parties to the action or proceeding.
- Unless this is a collections case under rule 3.740 or a complex case, this cover sheet will be used for statistical purposes only.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
